

Student Award Recipients 2014

Homer Seguin ($500)

Name Heather Byrnell

Program: Masters Human Kinetics

Thesis Topic: Evaluation of personal protective equipment as a control strategy to reduce foot-transmitted vibration

Homer Seguin ($500)

Name Zach McGillis

Program: Masters Human Kinetics

Thesis Topic: A multi-disciplinary approach assessing factors contributing to fatigue, to mitigate injury in wildland fire-fighters.

Association of Canadian Ergonomists Ontario Region ($500)

Name Ayden Robertson

Program: Masters in Human Kinetics 2nd year

Thesis Topic: A multidisciplinary approach assessing factors contributing to fatigue, to mitigate injury in wildland firefighters.

UA Local 800 Graduate Fellowship ($5000)

Name Basem Gohar

Program: PhD Interdisciplinary Northern and Rural Health

Thesis Topic: Assessing the risk of occupational injury, illness and disability: creating a meta-analytically informed instrument for lost-time injury prediction in nurses.

William Shaver Masters Scholarship in Mining Health and Safety ($5000)

Name Wesley Killen

Program: Masters in Human Kinetics

Thesis Topic: Validation and Efficacy of a Simple Tool for Whole-Body Vibration Measurement and Exposure Management

William Shaver Doctoral Scholarship in Mining Health and Safety ($5000)

Name Malorie Leduc

Program: PhD Interdisciplinary Northern and Rural Health

Thesis Topic: Occupational vibration exposure within the mining industry, particularly, health effects of workers exposed to vibration while standing.

Total Scholarship Dollars Awarded in 2014:

$16,500