

2018-19 Graduate Student Awards

Graduate students affiliated with the Centre for Research in Occupational Safety and Health could be eligible for the following awards.

Students are required to submit one hard copy and one electronic copy of their application:

Note:

- Please use the Check Sheet (provided in Appendix A) as your cover page for your application(s).
- Please attach (2) Referee Forms (provided in Appendix B).
- All applications must be submitted as one hard copy and one electronic copy to: the CROSH administrative Assistant: Giselle Thrush; gthrush@laurentian.ca, Room B-217C.
- Duplicate CVs, referee forms and transcripts ARE NOT REQUIRED if you are applying for more than one award.
- A listing of currently held awards and their value must be included in your CV

Please read the criteria of each award, as some will require more documentation than others.*

Awards will not be issued if funds become unavailable or if no eligible applicants apply*

1. Ontario Nurses' Association Graduate Scholarship
Value	$2,000.00
Application Due	September 30, 2018 to Giselle Thrush, CROSH Administrative Assistant
Award Date:	October 30, 2017
Eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full or Part-time Laurentian University Student in a masters or doctoral program. • Recipient must be a student member of the CROSH.
Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The student must submit a current curriculum vitae • Minimal admission average of 75% (copy of academic transcript required to support) • Two faculty reference forms verifying the relevance of the student's research to health care and health and safety and on knowledge transfer opportunity; particularly to the nursing profession (use reference form found in Appendix B). • Proposed thesis is focused on a health and safety topic relevant and deemed beneficial to the health care sector. • The student must submit a written application (no more than 500 words) indicating the proposed topic area of his/her master's research. The written application must also include a justification for why his/her proposed topic is relevant to the health care sector.
*Note	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preference will be given to research directly involving the nursing community.

2. UA Local 800 Graduate Fellowship

2. UA Local 800 Graduate Fellowship
Value	$5,000.00
Application Due	September 30, 2018 to Giselle Thrush, CROSH Administrative Assistant
Award Date:	October 30, 2018
Eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full-time or part-time Laurentian University student enrolled in a graduate program whose research is focused on occupational health and safety • Preference is given to children of members • Student member of CROSH
Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two Faculty references (use reference form found in Appendix B) • The student must submit a current curriculum vitae and transcripts • The student must submit a written application (no more than 500 words) indicating the proposed topic area of his/her master's research highlighting the relevance to OHS.

3. William Shaver Masters Scholarship in Mining Health and Safety

Value	$5,000.00 (may be renewed for up to one year (application required)); for a maximum value of $10,000)
Application Due	September 30, 2018 to Giselle Thrush, CROSH Administrative Assistant
Award Date:	October 30, 2018
Eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resident of Canada or Visa student • Full-time Laurentian University student registered in either the first or second year of a master's program whose research is focused on occupational health and safety in a mining context • Student member of CROSH
Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two Faculty references (use reference form found in Appendix B) • The student must submit a current curriculum vitae • Minimal admission average of 75% (copy of academic transcript required to support) • Proposed master thesis is focused on a health and safety topic relevant and deemed beneficial to the mining industry, as well as having knowledge transfer opportunity. • The student must submit a written application (no more than 500 words) indicating the proposed topic area of his/her masters research. The written application must also include a justification for why his/her proposed topic is relevant to the mining industry

4. William Shaver Doctoral Scholarship in Mining Health and Safety
Value	$5000.00 (may be renewed for up to three years (application required)); for a maximum value of $20,000)
Application Due	September 30, 2018 to Giselle Thrush, CROSH Administrative Assistant
Award Date:	October 30, 2018
Eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resident of Canada or Visa student • Full-time Laurentian University student registered in either the first or second year of a doctoral program whose research is focused on occupational health and safety in a mining context • Student member of CROSH
Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two Faculty references (use reference form found in Appendix B) • The student must submit a current curriculum vitae • Minimal admission average of 75% (copy of academic transcript required to support) • Proposed doctoral thesis is focused on a health and safety topic relevant and deemed beneficial to the mining industry, as well as having knowledge transfer opportunity • The student must submit a written application (no more than 500 words) indicating the proposed topic area of his/her doctoral research. The written application must also include a justification for why his/her proposed topic is relevant to the mining industry

5. MegaComfort Scholarship
Value	2 @ $500.00
Application Due	September 30, 2018 to Giselle Thrush, CROSH Administrative Assistant
Award Date:	October 30, 2018
Eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resident of Canada or Visa student • Full-time or Part-time Laurentian University student enrolled in a graduate program whose research is focused on occupational health and safety • Student member of CROSH
Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two Faculty references (use reference form found in Appendix B) • The student must submit a current curriculum vitae • Minimal admission average of 75% (copy of academic transcript required to support) • Proposed thesis is focused on occupational health and safety • The student must submit a written application (no more than 500 words) indicating the proposed topic area of his/her research. The written application must also include a justification for why his/her proposed topic is relevant to occupational health and safety

6. CROSH Fellowship
Value	# TBD @ $2,500.00
Application Due	September 30, 2017 to Giselle Thrush, CROSH Administrative Assistant
Award Date:	October 30, 2017
Eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full-time Laurentian University student enrolled in a graduate program whose research is focused on occupational health and safety • Student member of CROSH
Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two Faculty references (use reference form found in Appendix B) • The student must submit a current curriculum vitae • Minimal admission average of 75% (copy of academic transcript required to support) • Proposed thesis is focused on occupational health and safety • The student must submit a written application (no more than 500 words) indicating the proposed topic area of his/her research. The written application must also include a justification for why his/her proposed topic is relevant to occupational health and safety

8. Dr. Fergal Nolan Radiation Safety Institute of Canada Graduate Award

Value	$5000.00 (may be renewed for one year (application required))
Application Due	September 30, 2018 to Giselle Thrush, CROSH Administrative Assistant
Award Date:	October 30, 2018 Awardee must be able to attend award ceremony in Toronto – date to be determined (travel expenses covered to and from award ceremony)
Eligibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resident of Canada or Visa student • Full-time or Part-time Laurentian University student registered in a graduate program • Student member of CROSH, MIRARCO or The Bharti School of Engineering
Criteria	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two Faculty references (use reference form found in Appendix B) • Application, including updated CV and transcript is required • Proposed thesis in on an occupational health and safety topic; preference will be given to research regarding radiation safety • The student must submit a written application (no more than 500 words) indicating the proposed topic area of his/her graduate thesis. The written application must also include a justification for why his/her proposed topic is relevant to occupational health and safety and radiation safety specifically, if applicable.

9. United Steel Workers Graduate Scholarship

Value		2 @ TBD each
Application Due		September 30, 2018 to Giselle Thrush, CROSH Administrative Assistant
Award Date:		October 30, 2018
Eligibility		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The recipient must be enrolled, full-time, in a graduate program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Registered in their 1st or 2nd year of a masters program; or ○ Registered in their 1st, 2nd, 3rd or 4th year of a doctoral program • Preference is given to children of members • Student member of CROSH
Criteria		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Application, including updated CV and transcript is required • Minimal admission average of 75% (copy of academic transcript required to support) • Proposed thesis is focused on a an occupational health and safety topic • The student must submit a written application (no more than 500 words) indicating the proposed topic area of his/her graduate thesis, including a justification for why his/her proposed topic is relevant to occupational health and safety.